So many factors about this location make it an unbeatable family vacation choice:

- Individual cottages are tucked away in the tree for privacy in adult groups
- The deck on the main lodge is a great location for board games or to catch up at the end of the day
- The beach is shallow, easy to enter, and safe for kids and older family members
- There is a lot to do on the island, and in the surrounding waters, for those family members that are active
- Other family members may choose to stay put and "test hammocks."
- Babysitting services can be arranged beforehand.
